1. No mobile phones or other electronic devices (except those allowed to the candidates) to be allowed to the examination centre.
2. No students, no invigilators and no other person present inside the examination centre should carry mobile phones.
3. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the invigilators, officers, observers, visiting squad members and others including Class IV employees present inside the examination premises to handover their mobile phones, cameras and other electronic devices to the Centre Superintendent or Dy. Centre Superintendents.
4. No official or teacher should be in possession of mobile phones when the Question paper Packets are being opened.
5. Only the Centre Superintendent can have a mobile phone with him to remain in contact with authorities.
6. Gate checking and body frisking of all the candidates shall be done before commencement of the examination, so that not a single piece of incriminating material enters into the examination centre/halls.
7. Only female teachers to be entrusted with the job of frisking girl students
8. Students should be allowed into the examination halls half an hour before the commencement of the examination and they should be on their allotted seats at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination.
9. No leniency be shown to candidates who come in hordes just before the examination and they may be allowed into the examination halls only after thorough gate check and body frisking.
10. Under no circumstances any guardian or public will be allowed inside the examination centre.
11. Strict vigil should be kept in and around the examination centre so that question paper does not go out of the examination centre during the hours of the examination.
12. Invigilators must ensure that students who are allowed to go to urinals must submit their question papers to the invigilators which will be returned to the students when they come back.
13. No candidate shall be allowed to take out the question paper in case he/she leaves the examination centre before close of the examination on that day.
14. Before the commencement of the examination on every day the invigilators must warn the candidates inside the examination hall that they must not write anything or must not put any mark including tick/cross/dots in the question papers, except their respective Roll Numbers. Any violation of this rule will amount to malpractice.
15. Invigilators, employees and other staff should refrain from aiding/abetting malpractice and should not be in possession of mobile phones.
16. Media persons are not allowed into the examination centres. If they desire to take pictures, they may do so from outside the examination premises.

These instructions be observed in letter and spirit. Any violation in examination rules shall invite stern action under "Conduct of Examination Act 1988 "with amendments" and under IPC.
